The Washington Herald, of yesterday, says:

One of the most interesting of all the many debutantes of the coming season will be Miss Ducy Hoke Smith, second daughter of the new Senator from Georgia, Governor Hoke Smith and Mrs. Smith. There will be several other Southern girls in the list of debutantes, Miss Helen Hardy, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Hardy, of Texas, being among them. Miss Hardy is a most interesting Liember of the younger set and attracted attention at the ball of the Southern Relief Society last winter by her grace and her colonial costume in the minuet.

and may have been despondent on that account.

He and his wife spent Sunday with a party at the Van Ike Fishing Club's resort, on Middle River, returning this morning, and Mr. May seemed to be in the best of spirits all morning and just before the shooting.

His mind was clear after the shooting, but besides remarking that it was the biggest fool thing he had ever done, he made no explanation. The shooting occurred when he went home to dinner. Reaching home, he went immediately to his room, and in a few moments his sister-in-law, in another part of the house, heard a shot, and running to the room, found him lying across the bed. His wife was not at home, but soon arrived, and was overcome with grief.

Bristol, Va., October 2.—The automobile scouts, representing the Bristol-toWashington Highway Association, who were named for the purpose of trying out a route and educating the people of the Virginia counties up to what will be required of them in the building or a stone highway between Bristol and Washington, started on their tour of the State at 3 o'clock this morning. The purpose of this trip is to arouse such sentiment as will result in a continuation of the Memphis-to-Bristol highway, which is soon to be builf across the State of Tennessee, from the border here across Virginia to the national capital, thus forming a national highway between Washington and the South.

South.

Four cars carrying scouts left Bristol, and they were joined by others at Chilhowle. Among those in the party are William H. Aston, president of the Bristol-to-Washington Highway Association; F. M. Runnels, secretary of the same organization; P. St. Julien Wilson, State Highway Commissioner of Virginia, and Charles P. Light, formerly a member of the West Virginia Highway Commission, and at present associated with the American Association of Highway Improvement. The party left ciated with the American Association of Highway Improvement. The party left here with a schedule for meetings at the following places, where enthusiastic receptions were anticipated, based upon advance correspondence: Abingdon, Glade Spring, Marion, Rural Retreat, Wytheville, Pulaski, Christiansburg, Radford and Salem. The party is due to reach Roanoke at 7 o'clook Tuesday evening, and arrangements have been made to participate in the good roads convention of the Appalachian Associa-tion.

Scouts Reach Wytheville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Wytheviller Va., October 2.—The Bristol-to-Washington-highway pathfinders arrived in Wytheville to-night 4t 7 o'clock, thirty minutes ahead of the schedule, due to the courteous permission of the people of Rural Retreat to pass up the meeting at that place.
The trip settled the question as to whether certain of the Southwest Virginia counties to-day are indorsing the movement to build a great rock road across the State of Virginia from the Tennessee line to the national capital.
At Glade, where the first stop was made at noon, more than 100 people had assembled, and listened to the rapid fire addresses of Highway Commissioner St. John, Charles P. Light, O. U.
Omohundro, President Aston and F. M.
Runnels, secretary.

At Chilhowie there was a first-clast
good roads meeting held in the open.
Four miles out from Marion the road enthusiasts in automobiles met the pillot party and escorted them to the courthouse, where the courtroom was filled to its capacity.

Leaving Marion, the pilot cars were met during a heavy downpour of rain
by dars from Rural Retreat, and the officers of the association were given permission, because of the weather, to proceed direct to Wytheville. Two miles out from this city to-night eight automobiles were lined up, blowing a royal welcome to the scouts.

Following a noisy parade through the streets, the party was taken to the courthouse, where a brass band, good speakers and a large number of women
inade the meeting a brilliant success.
The scouts leave at 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning for Pulaski, Radford and Roanoke.

Gets Nomination as Commonwealth's Attorney Over Henry E. Lee.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Blackstone, Va., October 2.—The Democratic County Committee heard the contest for the nomination for the office of Commonwealth's attorney of Nottoway county at Nottoway Courthouse to-day, and decided in favor of W. Moncure Gravatt by a vote of 14 to 13. The returns of the judges of the primary gave H. E. Lée a majority of seven. Mr. Gravatt contested the right of Mr. Lee to the nomination because, he alleged, at Crewe Precinct, sixty or vote, and because minors and residents vite, and because minors and residents of other districts in the county and of other counties were allowed to vote at Crewe Precinct. The committee heard the evidence presented and decided that Mr. Gravatt was entitled to the certificate, and gave it to him.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., October 2.—The forecast for the Interstate Fair, which starts its annual four days' exhibition Tuesday, is that it will be the best fair ever held in this section. Never before have there been as many entries in the various departments, all of which will be filled to overflowing. The race card promises to be a good one, despite other fairs which will be holding their events this week.

The display in the stock department will be a superb one, including a large exhibit from Thomas F. Ryan's Oak Ridge estate, in Nelson county.

In the local running race Thursday, which dash will be confined to home horses, a young woman will participate as a jockey.

Wednesday will be Lynchburg Day, and the city will take a holiday, all of the principal stores and factories closing for the day.
